

Connecting the Connectors

Reaching our cities, towns and villages

Monday 30 November to Wednesday 2 December 2009

The Hayes Conference Centre,
Swanwick, Derbyshire

Connecting the Connectors is a national conference which aims to bring together Christians who feel called to 'connect' in their locality.

CONNECTORS

will often feel a call to a certain geography – their town, city or region.

CONNECTORS

will often feel a call to unite Christians across denominational boundaries.

CONNECTORS

will often feel called to certain strategic groups – voluntary sector, statutory sector, media, church leaders, network leaders, policing, education, etc.

CONNECTORS

will often be involved in various networking, mission and mercy projects.

Conference details

Following the success of the first two CTC conferences in '07 and '08, this third conference will take place from Monday 30 November – Wednesday 2 December 2009 at the Hayes Conference Centre, Swanwick, Derbyshire.

The conference will provide an opportunity for worship, prayer, sharing and networking. Connectors are invited to bring with them other leaders from their locality so that the implications of the conference's strategic input can be considered in local settings.

Special national focus on:

Media, arts and entertainment

Business and commerce

Prayer and mission

These are exciting times across the UK. We are continuing to see the emergence of growing networks of Christians committed to seeing the transformation of their communities and the Kingdom of God come in power through united prayer, mission, mercy and strategic networking across society. As God's 'green shoots' continue to emerge around us this conference will provide an inspirational opportunity to be encouraged, resourced and challenged.
